

Jesus: a biographical person who awakened to his identity of union with God

Christ: an archetypal energy coursing through history;

a carrier of the Mystery of God through time and space

What happened in Jesus must happen in us. This is the birth of Christ in the soul.

1

Eckhart's mysticism of Ground:
his master metaphor

The Ground of God: the deepest, most silent and unknowable depths of God in Godself.

The Ground of God in your soul: the deepest, most silent and unknowable depths of God in your very self. This is your home.

How does this birth of Christ in the soul happen?

The invitation is to melt into the way of love lived by Jesus. There is desire and passion behind it.

The insatiable desire for God is unaffected by the assaults of joy or sorrow, honor disgrace or shame because they are only fleeting states of consciousness.

They are not lasting.
Your home is the Ground of God in your soul.
